

Work with Passion

A two day Workshop with Ann Beazer

Held in her purpose built Studio, Eleuthera, in West Sussex

What is Work with Passion?

Work with Passion is a creative approach to finding work that gives you joy. Identify what you really want from a career, align with your life purpose and find fulfilment.

What will the workshop do for me?

- Think in new and creative ways about what to do with your life/work
- Select the positive aspects of existing work experiences
- Clarify what you want in the future
- Explore your “transferable skills”
- Consider new fields in which your skills might be used

A Typical Workshop

Topics include

Day One

- What did I always dream about being/doing?
- The best aspects of your present/last work situation
- Seeing frustrations as pointers for the future
- Assumptions, beliefs and values as personal drivers
- “Transferable skills” audit

Day Two

- Your vision of the future
- Barriers to achieving your dreams
- Strategies for finding what you want
- Ongoing personal implementation plan

Why Work with Passion?

- Are you bored and looking for a fresh challenge?
- Is your job past its “sell by date”?
- Are you bewildered by wondering what else you could do?
- Have you been made redundant?
- Do you just need real time to make decisions about your future?

Spend time

- Exploring what you really want
- Building self belief that this is possible

Discover

- A variety of tools and approaches to help you create a new future
